

2023 Peace Women's Retreat: Homelessness and Advocacy

October 13-15 at ARC Retreat Center
$275

John Petroskas has been a policy specialist for the Minnesota Department of Human Services for the past ten years. Before that, he worked for 13 years in programs serving homeless families and adults, including the Housing First program and Higher Ground, an innovative shelter and supportive housing program for homeless adults in Minneapolis. John also works part-time for Radias Health in their Main Street supportive housing program in St. Paul. He is a frequent speaker at conferences and trainings for direct service providers.
